Commentary

During March, the Company's net asset value ('NAV') per share was down 2.9%, the share price was down 3.6%, while the MSCI World Index (total return, sterling adjusted) was down 3.9%.

Our biggest detractor for the month was Airbus, down 5.5%, costing us 0.6% of our NAV. Infigen was down 10.2% on continued uncertainty around Australian energy policy, costing us 0.6% of NAV. Safran was down 6.3%, costing us 0.5% of NAV, on concerns regarding production of the LEAP engine being six weeks behind schedule due to supply chain issues, but the company remains confident it will catch up on production by Q3 2018. Alphabet suffered with the other technology players on data security issues following the Facebook incident, losing 7.8%, and costing us 0.4% of our NAV. Terraform Power was down 9.5%, costing us 0.4%, because of the increased possibility of a rate rise in the US. There were no material contributors during the month.

Any return you receive depends on future market performance and is uncertain. The Company does not seek any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. Shares of the Company are bought and sold on the London Stock Exchange. The price you pay or receive, like other listed shares, is determined by supply and demand and may be at a discount or premium to the underlying net asset value of the Company. Usually, at any given time, the price you pay for a share will be higher than the price you could sell it. For further information on the principal risks the Company is exposed to please refer to the Company's Annual Report or Investor Disclosure Document available at www.menhaden.com.

The Company, currently, deploys leverage using currency forwards. These are designed to, partially, protect/hedge the NAV from unfavourable movements in foreign exchange rates by reducing the Company's exposure to foreign currencies. The Company can borrow, but does not currently.

Investment Policy

The Company's investment objective is pursued through constructing a conviction-driven portfolio consisting primarily of direct listed and unlisted holdings across different asset classes and geographies. The Company invests, either directly or through external funds, in a portfolio that is comprised of three main allocations: listed equity; yield assets; and special situations. The flexibility to invest across asset classes affords the Company two main benefits: 1) It enables construction of a portfolio based on an assessment of market cycles; and 2) It enables investment in all opportunities which benefit from the investment theme. It is expected the portfolio will comprise approximately 20 to 25 positions. Typically, the portfolio will not comprise fewer than 20 positions or more than 50 positions. For these purposes, an investment in an external fund is treated as one position.

The portfolio will be predominantly focused on investments in developed markets, though if opportunities that present an attractive risk and reward profile are available in emerging markets then these may also be pursued. While many of the companies forming the portfolio are headquartered in the UK, USA or Europe, it should be noted that many of those companies are global in nature so their reporting currency may not reflect their actual geographic or currency exposures. Subject at all times to any applicable investment restrictions contained in the Listing Rules, the Company will not make an investment if it would cause a breach of any of the following limits at the point of investment: 1) no more than 20% of the Company's gross assets may be invested, directly or indirectly through external funds, in the securities of any single entity; and, 2) no more than 20% of the Company's gross assets may be invested in a single external fund.

Menhaden Capital PLC conducts its affairs so that its shares can be recommended by independent financial advisers ("IFAs") to retail private investors. The shares are excluded from the Financial Conduct Authority's ("FCA's") restrictions which apply to non-mainstream investment products because they are shares in a UK-listed investment trust.

During March we decided to commit US $15 million to the TCI Real Estate Partners Fund III. TCI is an investment firm headquartered in London with US $26 billion under management whose founder, Chris Hohn, has passed the majority of his wealth to a children and climate change-focused foundation named the Children's Investment Fund Foundation (CIFF)*. Whilst TCI has focused on global equities, the firm created a credit strategy in 2009 for CIFF, a UK charity. This strategy provides asset-backed loans to prime real estate development projects that are best in class in terms of energy efficiency and environmental standards. The strategy has generated returns of circa 11% annually since inception. Due to the success of the strategy, TCI invited a limited number of investors to participate alongside CIFF in the new fund. There is no management fee on the fund and investors will pay a carried interest of 20% over a hurdle of 6%. The fund has an expected life of 5-7 years.

*Ben Goldsmith sits on the Board of Trustees of CIFF, for which he receives no remuneration. He is not included in the investment decision process for CIFF's investment portfolio.
